

Bees, Mead, and More

Sunday, July 28

4-6 pm

Melanie Kirby was a 2018 SFUSA delegate to Terra Madre and is a 2019 Fulbright National Geographic Fellow. Slow Food Corvallis is excited to welcome her to Oregon to discuss her research on the timely topic of bees, their importance and their survival.

*Bees as Seeds- A discussion on the connection between habitat, nutrition, health and longevity of bees, and their conservation.
