

A Corvallis Slow Food event at

Elixir Craft Spirits

(1050 Bethel Drive, Eugene)

is scheduled for

Sunday, September 30th

(from 2 until about 4 pm.)

Elixir is a very small craft distillery that produces "artisanal liqueurs in the Old World Tradition." Andrea Loreto, originally from Florence, Italy, started his distillery in Eugene ten years ago. He will discuss the history of traditional Italian liqueurs, tell us why he started making these here, show us how he makes them in small, hand-made batches, and offer a tasting of the four liqueurs he currently makes. More information about these liqueurs is available on his website: elixircraftspirits.com.

He can only accommodate 20 people in his small distillery. Participation is free, but given the limited capacity, registration is required and will be restricted to the first 20 people who sign up. If you wish to attend please email me as soon as possible at kent.fleming@oregonstate.edu . I will email you with confirmation of your registration for this event.
